OFFICIALS NAMED FOR BOWIE MEETING

A. B. Dade Will Again Start Horses at Prince George Park.

Bowle, Md., Nov. 10.-General Manager John F. O'Hara, of the Southern Maryland Agricultural Association, announced last night that there would not be a solitary chance in the list of racing officials for the fall meeting which opens at Bowle next Tuesday evening to run dur-ing the rest of the month, and this means that the following gentlemen, who are well known in turfdom, have been re-

Stewards-E. C. Smith, Wm. P. Spurgeon and C. C. Hall.

Veterinarian—H. J. McCarthy.

No meeting ever held at Prince George Park has created as much interest in turf circles in the East as that which will be inaugurated next week. This can be attributed directly to high class lot of thoroughbreds that sports like at the fifteen-day event of the Southern Maryland
Agricultural Association, which will stage

Practically every equine of merit not being campaigned at Pimilico will be shifted to Bowie after the running of Monday's program at the famous Hilltop track. The crowd that will come from the historic course of the Maryland Jockey Club will join that division that went to Bowie at the close of the Maryland State Fair's annual October affair at Laurel Park and several stables which were shipped direct to Prince George Park at the wind-up of the racing season in Canada at Devonshire Park last Saturday. The daily programs at Bowie this fall will eclipse those of previous meetings in attractiveness and the meeting points to be the most successful ever conducted by the Southern Maryland Agrissultural Association which now ranks with the leading racing organizations in the state of the section of the

THROW LEO PARDELLO

Last evening at the Lyceum, William Demetral, the Greek grappler, failed to throw Leo Pardello within the twenty-minute time limit. Pardello used defensive tactics throughout and was at no time in danger of being pinned to the can vas.

"But it don't never become a winner t' yodel, so my only hope is that th' time ain't very far distant when all of th' folks of these United States, Republican an' Democrat alike, will come t' realize that in Woodrow Wilson their country has had at its head durin' these turrible years o' bloodshed an' misery a hones' an' fearless man, an' a true friend t' guide 'em. guide 'em.
